We follow Jesus, welcome all, and nurture ministries.

Online Bulletin

The Fourth Sunday in Lent

Year C

March 31, 2019 10:15 a.m.

Welcome to St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Whether this is your first visit or you have been a member for years, we're glad you're here! This bulletin is designed to guide you through the service. Hymnals, Bibles and the Book of Common Prayer are in the pews and available for your use as well.

Our youngest guests are welcome to attend services or may join Miss Heidi in the nursery (room 2) where we have toys, Bible Stories, music and art projects available.

Our Sunday school program (K-grade 5) begins at 10am on the Labyrinth. After joining the procession in the church, our program continues in room 14 where they participate in Children's Chapel, hear a Bible story, and enjoy fun and engaging activities related to that story. Children return to the church to join their families for Eucharist.

Youth Group (grades 6-12) meets in the Youth Center at 10am for the opportunity to explore the Bible, express their faith through art and discuss important questions. They join us for Eucharist.

Again, welcome and please let us know if there's anything we can do to make your time with us more enriching and enjoyable.

Silent Procession

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant
People

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins;
His mercy endures for ever.

Book of Common Prayer (BCP) p. 351

Celebrant

Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these."

Mark 12:29-31

Please remain standing or kneel as you prefer.

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

Trisagion

Please stand as you are able.

Hymnal S102

The service music can be found in the front of the hymnal.

Holy God, Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

As Episcopalians, our custom is to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest Holy Scripture. You are invited to do so right here in your bulletin.

First Reading

Joshua 5:9-12

A reading from the Book of Joshua.

The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away from you the disgrace of Egypt." And so that place is called Gilgal to this day.

While the Israelites were camped in Gilgal they kept the passover in the evening on the fourteenth day of the month in the plains of Jericho. On the day after the passover, on that very day, they ate the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain. The manna ceased on the day they ate the produce of the land, and the Israelites no longer had manna; they ate the crops of the land of Canaan that year.

Psalm 32

- 1 Happy are they whose transgressions are forgiven, *
and whose sin is put away!
- 2 Happy are they to whom the LORD imputes no guilt, *
and in whose spirit there is no guile!
- 3 While I held my tongue, my bones withered away, *
because of my groaning all day long.
- 4 For your hand was heavy upon me day and night; *
my moisture was dried up as in the heat of summer.
- 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you, *
and did not conceal my guilt.
- 6 I said, " I will confess my transgressions to the LORD." *
Then you forgave me the guilt of my sin.
- 7 Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of trouble; *
when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach them.
- 8 You are my hiding-place;
you preserve me from trouble; *
you surround me with shouts of deliverance.
- 9 "I will instruct you and teach you in the way that you should go; *
I will guide you with my eye.
- 10 Do not be like horse or mule, which have no understanding; *
who must be fitted with bit and bridle,
or else they will not stay near you."
- 11 Great are the tribulations of the wicked; *
but mercy embraces those who trust in the LORD.
- 12 Be glad, you righteous, and rejoice in the LORD; *
shout for joy, all who are true of heart.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 5:16-21

A Reading from the Second Letter to the Corinthians.

From now on, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Holy Gospel
Remain standing and face the Gospel.

Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

So Jesus told them this parable:

"There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.' So he divided his property between them. A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands."' So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe--the best one--and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate.

"Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.' Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!' Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.'"

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Reverend Susan Bek

A period of silent reflection follows the sermon.

Credo from St. Paul's Mass
All stand as able and together sing.

Felix Eisenhauer

Deacon

Our service continues with the Nicene Creed. Please stand and join us in singing.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.

A - men.

Prayers of the People

Please stand or kneel as is your custom.

Deacon

In this holy season let us turn to God in prayer, saying: Lord, have mercy.

Leader

For all the people of God, that we may embrace the folly of the cross and become ministers of reconciliation in a broken world, let us pray to the Lord. Lord have mercy.

For this nation and all nations, that we may generously share the produce of the land, both in plenty and in want, let us pray to the Lord. Lord have mercy.

For this community that we may learn from God to seek the lost and to rejoice when they are found, let us pray to the Lord. Lord have mercy.

For all who suffer, for the sick and infirm, especially (the people may add their own petitions either silently or aloud), and for those affected by recent violence, or recovering from fires and floods, let us pray to the Lord. Lord have mercy.

For all who have died in the faith of Christ, especially Julia Cohen (the people may add their own petitions either silently or aloud), and for the promise of resurrection to be fulfilled, we pray to the Lord. Lord have mercy.

Deacon

God of mercy and compassion, bring us back to you when we stray, and give us again the joy of proclaiming among the nations your saving deeds. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COMMISSIONING OF ST. PAUL'S VESTRY

Rector Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus, we are all baptized by the one Spirit in one Body and given gifts for a variety of ministries for the common good. Today we commission these persons who are qualified and duly elected to the ministry of the vestry.

Rector You have been called and elected to this ministry. Will you, as long as you are engaged in this work, perform it with diligence, and faithfully execute your duties to the honor of God and the benefit of this congregation?

Vestry I will.

Rector Let us all pray together.

All O Eternal God, the foundation of all wisdom and the source of all courage: Enlighten with your grace our Wardens and Vestry. Inspire their minds, and guide their actions, that in all things they may seek your glory and promote the mission of your Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rector In the name of God and of this congregation, I commission you as a members of the Vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Thank you so much for your service!

Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A

The people remain standing.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that fervent in prayer and works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Please stand, sit or kneel as is your custom.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Be known to us Lord, Jesus, in the breaking of the bread.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Wherever you are in your journey of faith, you are welcome at communion. Our custom is to receive the bread in your open palm. Please tell the priest if you prefer a gluten-free wafer or sulfite-free juice. Sip the wine, if you wish it, from the common cup, guiding the chalice gently with your hand or the Eucharistic Minister will dip the bread for you. Otherwise, cross your arms over your chest as a sign you wish a blessing from the priest.

After you receive communion you are invited to meet with our lay prayer ministers in the chapel. Briefly state the particular concern, burden, thanksgiving, or transition you bring for yourself or someone else. Confidentiality is observed. Rejoin the other worshipers for the post communion prayer.

Communion Music

Meditation on My Song is Love Unknown

Francis Jackson

Wait for the Lord

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of two systems of music. The first system has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The lyrics are: "Wait for the Lord, whose day is near." The piano accompaniment starts with a bass clef and the same key signature and time signature. The second system also has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: "Wait for the Lord: be strong, take heart!" The piano accompaniment continues with the same key signature and time signature. Both systems end with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Postcommunion Prayer

Please stand or kneel as you prefer.

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen

When the Eucharist is being taken out to those who are sick or shut-in, we will pray together.

In the name of this congregation, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we share one bread, one cup. Amen.

Solemn Prayer over the People

Remain standing or kneeling.

Deacon Bow down before the Lord.

Celebrant Look down in mercy, Lord, on your people who kneel before you; and grant that those whom you have nourished by your Word and Sacraments may bring forth fruit worthy of repentance; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

And now, may the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, rest upon you and remain with you, this day and for evermore. Amen.

It’s a wonderful way to expand your understanding and enrich your experience of Lent.

Preparing for Holy Week and Easter

Here are some ways you can help:

	SATURDAY, April 13 – IT’S ALL ABOUT THE PALMS! PALM CROSS MAKING WORKSHOP: 9am in the Community Room Come and learn this ancient art as we prepare the palm crosses for Palm Sunday. No prior experience is necessary, and we could really use your help. Thanks! PALM DECORATING: 9am in the Sanctuary Come help us decorate and create a beautiful palm arch as we prepare the church for Palm Sunday. Lots of hands make light work!
	PLANTS & FLOWERS NEEDED: We’re going to create a garden in the side chapel. This is where we will take shifts through the night, keeping the watch, and remembering the time when Jesus went to the garden to pray and then was arrested. If you don’t mind loaning us any potted plants or flowers, we’d really appreciate it! You can drop them off after services on Palm Sunday or sometime before noon on Wednesday, April 17th. Please contact the church office to arrange a time. Plan to pick them up after church on Easter Sunday. Thank you so much!
	SATURDAY, April 20 at 9am - FLOWER ARRANGING & DECORATING Would you like to help us? Come lend a hand. Help us prepare for a truly glorious Easter. No experience necessary. Our Flower Guild appreciates your support!
	EASTER SUNDAY—SHARING OF EASTER BREADS: A Saint Paul’s tradition! The coffee hours following both services on Easter Sunday are not hosted but shared by all. Please bring your favorite breads and sweets to share with the congregation on Easter Sunday. Bring your items already plated and ready to serve, then place your plate on the refreshment table and don’t forget to take your empty plate on your way out. Thank you for sharing!
	EASTER SUNDAY - FLOWERS FOR THE CROSS—Another Saint Paul’s tradition is to decorate the empty cross. Bring flowers from your garden (or the store) and add them to the cross as you enter the Sanctuary to celebrate the Risen Lord on Easter Sunday!
Want to Help in Holy Week? 	4/18 Help with the Stripping of the Altar at the Maundy Thursday Service – Wear black (or dark) clothes and come at 7pm for a brief training before the service. 4/18-4/19 Help us Keep the Watch – one hour shifts available through the night and until the noon service on Good Friday

Thank you!

Holy Week and Easter Services

Please invite a friend and join us.

Want to build a deeper connection with Jesus and do something that will help prepare you to experience a truly glorious Easter?

Join us during Holy Week, and you too can have a profound spiritual experience.

Come, get inspired!

	PALM SUNDAY – April 14: Join us as we remember Jesus’ triumphal entry into Jerusalem and begin our journey through Holy Week. 8:00 am: Procession of the Palms with Holy Eucharist. 9:30 am: We will gather in Kahler Hall then Process to Ventura County Medical Center to offer prayers and blessings for the sick and all who work to help them. 10:15 am: Procession of the Palms, Reading of The Passion and Holy Eucharist. (This service will begin around the fountain outside Kahler Hall.)
	MAUNDY THURSDAY – April 18: Join us as we remember Jesus’ last supper in this service with washing of feet (optional), Holy Eucharist and stripping of the altar. One of the most moving services of the year! 7:30 pm: Service 9:00 pm: Vigil at The Altar of Repose begins and continues until noon on Good Friday
	VIGIL AT THE ALTAR OF REPOSE – Thursday, April 18, 9:00 pm – Friday, April 19, Noon: “Stay with me, remain here with me. Watch and pray, watch and pray.” Help us “Keep the Watch” remembering the time when Jesus prayed in the garden and was arrested. Sign-up sheet for one hour shifts is in the narthex (lobby).
	LABYRINTH WALK BY CANDLELIGHT – Friday, April 19, 6:00 am – 7:00 am: Looking for a meaningful way to remember Jesus’ sacrifice on Good Friday? Come and walk the Labyrinth by candlelight at dawn from 6 – 7 am or anytime throughout the day. Enjoy the beautiful sunrise with glistening light, prayer and meditation.
	GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE – Friday, April 19, Noon: Traditional Good Friday service at Noon. A Good Friday offering is the opportunity to add some of the substance of our lives to the substance of our prayers. This year’s offering is to support the Four Episcopal Church Dioceses in the Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East. Support focuses on pastoral care, education and healthcare for those in need. Please donate during our service or online: www.episcopalchurch.org/goodfridayoffering.
	EXPERIENCE THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS—Good Friday, April 19 7:00 pm: We will walk the Stations of the Cross remembering what Jesus went through on his way to the cross. Everyone will have the opportunity to do or experience something related to each station along the way. When Jesus is condemned, we will each have the opportunity to bang the gavel. When he is stripped of his garments, we will each tear off a piece of cloth. Together we will carry the wood and build the cross. When we are finished, we will place it in the memorial garden and pray. This is a powerful and meaningful way to remember and give thanks for all that Jesus sacrificed for us.
	THE GREAT EASTER VIGIL – Saturday, April 20, 8:00 pm: Join us as we kindle the new flame, retell the stories of our ancestors in the faith by candlelight, then renew our baptismal vows and proclaim the coming of Easter in a glorious celebration. This first service of Easter is one of the most inspiring services of the entire year. Bring a friend and join us!
